

Autumn 2022 Online CPD Series for Podiatrists in Ireland Announcements

Personal and Business Wellbeing series for Podiatrists in Ireland, Funded by SCPI

SCPI have been listening to our members and are delighted to present a wellness series of lectures as part of our Autumn CPD. Come and join Lorcan O'Donaile and Dave James who will be sharing key nuggets on how to look after both ourselves and our practices. This series is fully funded for our SCPI members and €15 per session for non members. Recordings will be available for a period of time afterwards so as many of us that wish to can access these can, with certificates of attendance also available after each session. Make sure you register your place via Eventbrite.
